It's Christmas Here All Through THE STORE

The Holly and Mistletoe are up. Cheery lights glow and twinkle. Toyland is in full swing in large new quarters on the Fourth Floor. The Old Time Spirit of Cordiality and Hospitality are abroad throughout the store. Good cheer, good fellowship, joy and smiling faces are much in evidence in this magic land of red and green—as usual, Christmas shopping headquarters for Maine!

What a Christmas it's going to be for all who do their shopping here. More gifts and better gifts to choose from than ever before. Gifts to make the youngsters jump with joy on Christmas Day. Gifts that sweethearts will admire and adore. Gifts that Father, Mother, Brother, Sister, Son and Daughter will welcome with glee. Gifts that will bring a warm spot for the giver in the hearts of Relatives and Friends. Practical gifts—luxury gifts—gifts for the home—gifts from every corner of the globe—gifts that are old favorites—gifts new this year—gifts unusual and distinctive—gifts that will be prized and remembered long after Christmas has come and gone.

Yet it won't be any financial strain to remember everyone on your list. A dollar never went so far as it does this Christmas season at P. M. & B. You can buy as many gifts as you did last year and spend much less—or buy more gifts for the same amount you spent last year. Every gift, no matter how inexpensive, measures up to the standard of quality that has made the name P. M. & B. as prized on a Christmas Gift as "Sterling" is on silver. We never sell seconds or imperfects. All our gift merchandise is new, clean, perfect and desirable. Yet it costs no more, and often less, than you pay for inferior merchandise. Quality for quality, we are never knowingly undersold.

The Gates of Romance are open—inviting you on a glorious journey of gift shopping adventure—that will result in the Happy, Old Fashioned Merry Christmas so dear to the hearts of us all.

Santa Claus and his real, live reindeer arrive Saturday!

We know of no other place in the whole wide world where Santa arrives in this manner with real live reindeer. We feel that in this he is most good to us and the children. Santa will reach the store about 4:30 P. M. Be on hand to greet him. Santa will broadcast every night at 5 P. M. from WCSH.

MERCHANDISE BONDS:—If you're in doubt about what to give, a P. M. & B. merchandise bond will solve your problem. They are as good as gold and will be honored at any time.

GOLD, SILVER, NEW BILLS:—If you wish to make a gift of money, gold, silver or new bills may be obtained at our offices, 4th floor.

MAILING FACILITIES:—Packages may be wrapped and stamps purchased at our service desk.

WRAPPING OF GIFTS:—Many of our gifts come in smart gift boxes, prettily wrapped and tied. This adds to the appearance of the gift and the recipient will think kindly of your thoughtfulness.

A section for gift wrappings

We've taken a large section for a wonderful display of gift wrappings, seals, etc. Many in new, unusual designs and so much less expensive than last year.

We also feature gift tables devoted to interesting and unusual gifts. We've enlarged them greatly this year in both merchandise and space.

PORTLAND -- MAINE

South Paris

Shaw's Orchestra played at Locke Mills pavilion the night before Thanksgiving with a dancing crowd of 118 couples. Mrs. Bartlett of Bethel and Mr. Laporte of Rumford were prize winners. Paul Pope of South Paris won the large turkey.

Miss Beta Shaw and friend, Miss Leola Peters of Miami, Fla., returned Monday to the Leland Powers School in Boston, after spending Thanksgiving at Miss Shaw's home.

About thirty gallons of alcohol that vanished from the "rum room" at the County Courthouse, early on the morning of November 25, has not yet been located. The thieves gained entrance to the basement through a window and saved off two padlocks on the double door of the vault where contraband liquor is stored.

Miss Gertrude Titus and Miss Lucinda Ripley, who are students in Boston, were home for Thanksgiving.

The Acazeta Campfire Girls are preparing carols to sing on Christmas Eve. The custom of singing on the streets has been carried out in South Paris for several years.

Martin and Philip Parsons from the University of Maine and Miss Bernice Parsons of Portland were home, Thanksgiving Day.

Tickets are selling well for the motion picture, "Journey's End," to be presented as a benefit for the local unemployed. The show will be at Strand Theatre, Friday evening, December 4.

All the receipts will be given to the section.

Sent in: Some of our good people are asking why their celery, spinach, etc. had such a mysterious aromatic flavor, Thanksgiving Day. The casual observer would have no trouble in solving the mystery, after being an eye witness to the manner in which some of the stores displayed their crates and boxes in front of their windows on the sidewalk. The canines of the town love to have access to such things, they always enjoy the display. The celery thus treated, is not considered injurious.

Go to Hills Jewelry Store and you will find the best assortment of Diamonds, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Art Glass, Hand Painted China and Novelties. All new goods. Come in and see them. 185 Main St. B. L. Hutchins, Prop. Ad.

A series of "Challenge Sermons" will be presented at the Congregational Church during December, by the pastor, Rev. B. H. Colby. Subjects are as follows: Dec. 6, "The Challenge of the Uncertain"; Dec. 13, "The Challenge of Communism"; Dec. 20, "The Challenge of Christ to Modern Civilization"; Dec. 27, "The Challenge of the Past."

Nelson Haskell was home from Northeastern University, Boston, for several days, last week.

Leavord Durepo, formerly manager of the Strand Theatre here, has been transferred from the Playhouse at Montpelier, Vermont, to the Star Theatre at Concord, N. H.

Sterling D. Nelson and roommate, William Parmelee, of Chappaqua, N. Y., of Bowdoin College were at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Nelson, over the holiday. Other Thanksgiving guests were Mrs. May Darrach, Miss Bella Davis of Augusta, and Miss Beatrice Stone.

Miss Louise Bixby is organist at the Congregational Church during the absence of Mrs. Harold Neal.

Miss Evelyn Plummer was hostess at a meeting of the Friendship Class at her apartment, Monday evening. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Dora Colony, Miss Maxine Bennett, Miss Ruth Bolster and Mrs. Eleanor Bradford.

Stereoscopic slides will be featured in the service at the Congregational vestry Sunday evening, Dec. 6, at 7 o'clock. Subject will be "Feasting Where East Meets West." The readings and slides are new and will provide an evening of pleasure and instruction.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. DeGagne and daughter, Cleo, of Portland, and Dr. and Mrs. Merton Webster and son George of Pittsfield were recent guests of Mrs. June Penfold.

The spring by the roadside on Oxford Street, about half a mile from the village, has been improved at the suggestion of Dr. J. C. Littlefield. A cement cover and new pipe leading to a basin nearer the road prevents surface contamination. This spring has been a popular water supply for many years and has stood a good analysis. With a question mark on the purity of the water at the spring, and the spring on the fair grounds property closed to the public, this old timer will return to its former position in the thirsty world.

Dry weather is said to have little effect on the supply, as the flow is about one gallon a minute.

Mrs. John Titus has returned home from Portland, where she visited her son, Merton Titus and family.

Stores are taking on the Christmas look. Evergreen and colored lights have appeared on the store front of Geo. F. Eastman Co. Other shops will be illuminated and it is expected a community tree will again set cheer to Market Square during the holiday season.

Daniel Conant has been visiting his cousin, Miss Grace Conant at East Livemore for several days.

Stereoscopic slides will be featured in the service at the Congregational vestry Sunday evening, Dec. 6, at 7 o'clock. Subject will be "Feasting Where East Meets West." The readings and slides are new and will provide an evening of pleasure and instruction.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. DeGagne and daughter, Cleo, of Portland, and Dr. and Mrs. Merton Webster and son George of Pittsfield were recent guests of Mrs. June Penfold.

The spring by the roadside on Oxford Street, about half a mile from the village, has been improved at the suggestion of Dr. J. C. Littlefield. A cement cover and new pipe leading to a basin nearer the road prevents surface contamination. This spring has been a popular water supply for many years and has stood a good analysis. With a question mark on the purity of the water at the spring, and the spring on the fair grounds property closed to the public, this old timer will return to its former position in the thirsty world.

Dry weather is said to have little effect on the supply, as the flow is about one gallon a minute.

Mrs. John Titus has returned home from Portland, where she visited her son, Merton Titus and family.

Stores are taking on the Christmas look. Evergreen and colored lights have appeared on the store front of Geo. F. Eastman Co. Other shops will be illuminated and it is expected a community tree will again set cheer to Market Square during the holiday season.

Daniel Conant has been visiting his cousin, Miss Grace Conant at East Livemore for several days.

SOUTH PARIS—HILL STREET
Mrs. C. S. Dudley is in poor health. Mrs. Anna Bennett spent Thanksgiving day at Clyde Main's in South Windham.

Mrs. Albert Bryant and Francis were at her sister's, Mrs. Sada and son, in Bridgton for Thanksgiving and the rest of the week. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bryant were at the home of their daughter, Mrs. George Welch.

Leland Noyes and family are occupying the Brooks place, recently vacated by Ernest Paine.

W. O. Bryant and wife entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Dresser and little son from Mechanic Falls at Thanksgiving dinner.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Steven J. Percy of Portland on the birth of a little son, Steven J. Percy, Jr. Mrs. Percy was formerly Ava Hatch.

NORWAY—NOBLE'S CORNER
Mrs. Neva Burnham of Portland spent Wednesday night and the holiday at, Harold Wymann's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Upton and three children went to Buckfield, Thanksgiving, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Jack and family.
